WALKING IN THE SPIRIT

The Fruit of the Spirit - Goodness

So Abraham said to Lot, "Let's not have any quarrelling between you and me, or between your herdsmen and mine, for we are brothers" Gen. 13:8

We have read or heard several times about herdsmen in the Northern part of the country engaged in bitter arguments and fights leading to devastating destruction of lives and property. Oftentimes, these disputes that engulf a whole or two communities have needed the intervention of security agencies to quell the mayhem unleashed on such affected area(s) in question. Some communities still engage in cold war years after the clashes and the perceived settlement that could have followed.

The above analysis will help us to understand better what transpired between Abraham and Lot - his nephew.

Abraham and Lot travelled around the desert in tents. They followed God and did what He commanded. As it is usual of the nomadic, they travelled with their sheep and animals. They both had lots of them which later became a problem rather than a blessing.

As they moved from place to place, they had to have enough land for both groups of animals to graze. As the herds and flocks grew they needed more land and food for the animals.

Consequently, Lot's herdsmen started disputing with Abraham's herdsmen. They argued over where the animals would graze. Abraham, being good natured prevented a fight that could have ensued. He offered to part with Lot, his men and animals. Lot, being driven by greed and avarice, chose a seemingly better portion. Lot looked up and saw the beautiful green grass around the river. He also saw two cities that had lots of activity.

So, Lot chose for himself the green pasture to the East. Because Lot chose this land, Abraham went to the West and settled in the land of Canaan.

Scripture states that, "the Lord sees not as man sees" (1 Sam. 16:7). Lot saw only the well-watered valley. God saw the people of Sodom who were "wicked.....exceedingly" (v.13). Lot's failure to discern and abhor evil brought death and tragedy to his family.

Lot's great failure was that he loved personal gain more than he hated wickedness of Sodom (10-13). Perhaps he reasoned that the material advantages, culture and pleasures of Sodom outweighed the dangers and that he was strong enough spiritually to remain faithful to God. Thus, he exposed himself and his family to the immorality and ungodliness of Sodom only to learn the bitter lesson that his family was not strong enough to resist its evil influences.

Being good here is not about drolling out money or material things to the poor and the needy, or paying tithe, levy or donations to the Church. Goodness being of the fruit of the Spirit, is a desire and ability to live for God and do things God's way. God wants us to do things His way and love Him with all our heart, soul, mind and strength. If you invite Jesus now, He will come into your life and help you do what is right. He will guide you and show you the right way to do things. God's way!

Have a wonderful harvest season!

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE

A Protestant minister, Rev. Lawrence Phillips, was dangerously ill and would see no visitors. But when the town agnostic, Elmer Sanches, heard about the bad condition of the minister, he insisted on seeing him and was admitted to the sick room. "I'm most grateful, Pastor Phillips, that you allowed me to come while denying others that joy. Why did you do this?"

"Because, my friend, I feel sure of seeing my other friends in the next world. But you, Sir, this may be the last chance I have to see you"
