BIBLE STUDY OUTLINE

THEME: IN THE NAME OF JESUS CHRIST

SUB-THEME: The Divinity of Christ (1)

TOPIC: His Conception

TEXTS: Matthew 1:18-25; Luke 1:26-35

AIMS:

- i. to discover some prophecies concerning Christ's unique conception that is different from natural conception
- ii. to learn from the chastity of the Virgin Mary and
- iii. to teach the importance of chastity to the Christian family

INTRODUCTION:

A virgin is someone who has never engaged in sexual intercourse. The conception of Jesus describes how the Saviour was conceived in the womb of the young Virgin Mary through the miraculous work of the Holy Spirit and without Mary having sexual intercourse with any man. God chose this mystery, which is beyond human understanding to bring His Son into the world (Matt. 1: 18; Luke 1:34-35).

STUDY GUIDE/QUESTIONS:

1. What are some biblical evidences of the Virgin's conception of Jesus Christ? Isaiah 7:14;
2. Differentiate between natural human conception and the divine conception of Jesus Christ. Gen 4:1, 17, 25; 16: 4; Matt. 1: 18-19, 24-25; Luke 1:26-35.
3. What does the Bible teaches about chastity of men and virgins? Deut 22:20-29; Acts 15:20; 21:25; 1Cor 6:18; 7:2 1Thess 4:3.
4. What lessons Christians draw from Mary's state at the visit of the Angel? Isaiah 1:16; 2Tim 2:20-21; Jam 4:8;
5. What are the consequences of sexual immorality? Eph 5:5; Jude 1:7; Rev 2:22; 21:8.

CONCLUSION: The supernatural conception of our Lord Jesus Christ is a proof of His pureness and holiness from human inheritance of Adam's sinful nature. He has to come through a woman who has had no sexual intercourse with any man; to come to the world and fulfil the work of redemption.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT: Christ's mysterious birth by a woman was without a man's seed.

MEMORY VERSE: Matthew 1:23

"Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel," which is translated, "God with us."

SPIRITUAL TONIC FOR THE WEEK

Romans 8: 28

“And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love Him, who have been called according to His purpose.”

Loving Father, I thank You for Your love for me. Help me to love You as You love me. Remove from me hateful heart, plant Your love in me to love others as myself. As I continue to grow in Your love, order every situation and circumstance for my utmost good and advancement. In Jesus name I pray. Amen.

GOD WILL COUNTENANCE YOUR SACRIFICE

ON THE OTHER SIDE

You Can't Take It With You

A mean-spirited old miser diagnosed with a terminal illness was determined to prove wrong the saying 'You can't take it with you.' So he ordered his long-suffering wife to go to the bank and withdraw enough money to fill two pillowcases. He then told her to place the cash-filled pillowcases in the attic directly above his bed, reasoning that when he died, he would grab the money on his way up to heaven.

The ever-obedient wife followed the instructions to the letter. Several weeks after his death, she was cleaning the attic when she came across the pillowcases still filled with cash. 'The silly old fool!' she said to herself, 'I knew he should have told me to put the money in the basement!'

PRAYER FOR THE YEAR

Almighty God, the King of kings, You rule over all in heaven and on earth and Your reign is everlasting. Thank You for the grace to be citizens of Your Kingdom, make us understand our place in this kingdom, help us to represent Your interest very well on earth, enable us to comport ourselves as worthy ambassadors of Your Kingdom and Strengthen us to make known the peace and joy and all other benefits that come with Your rule in the world that through us the whole Creation will be delivered from its futility and hopelessness and in the end may we receive the crown of glory and shine as stars in Your eternal kingdom through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Theme for the year: KINGDOM MANIFESTATION HYMN FOR THE YEAR

THY KINGDOM COME, O LORD - A&MRW 816

Tune: St. Cecilia

1.
Thy kingdom come, O God,
thy rule, O Christ, begin;
break with thine iron rod
the tyrannies of sin.

2
Where is thy reign of peace
and purity and love?
When shall all hatred cease,
as in the realms above?

3
When comes the promised time
that war shall be no more,
and lust, oppression, crime
shall flee thy face before?

4.
We pray thee, Lord, arise,
and come in thy great might;
revive our longing eyes,
which languish for thy sight.

5
Men scorn thy sacred name,
and wolves devour thy fold;
by many deeds of shame
we learn that love grows cold.

6
O'er lands both near and far thick darkness broodeth yet:
arise, O Morning Star, arise, and never set!

PHYSICAL MANIFESTATION OF THE KINGDOM (v) LOVING RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD AND OTHERS

“If anyone says, “I love God, Yet hates his brother, he is a liar. For anyone who does not love his brother, who he has seen cannot love God, whom he has not seen.”

- 1 John 4:20

Love is an important theme in the Scripture. It is both who God is and what He has done, as well as what believers must exemplify in their relationship with God and their neighbours. Jesus said in Matthew 22: 36ff that only two commandments are needed to govern our lives, which are: love of God and love of our neighbours. He added that if such love is demonstrated, all the law and the prophet are fulfilled. This is so because love as godly virtue reflects the kingdom of God.

The command to love God is a command to delight in Him and to admire Him above all else and to be happy and content with His work which He does for His people. We know that God is always at work for the good of everyone who loves Him. (Romans 8:28).

If a person admires and worships God and finds fulfilment by taking refuge in His merciful care, then his attitude toward his neighbour will reflect the love of God. This is the point in 1 John 4:20 that our loving relationship with God comes to the fore through our love for others. We cannot claim to love God and hate His image in others.

Loving relationship commanded in the Scripture relates to both outward deeds and inward attitude. To love others excludes having a higher self esteem over and above our neighbour. It means using our total being to pursue our neighbour's happiness as we do our own. Paul says, “Do nothing out of selfish ambition or vain conceit. Rather, in humility value others above yourselves, not looking to your own interests but each of you to the interests of the others.” (Philippians 2: 3&4). This does not exclude our enemies. The love that will manifest God's kingdom must be extended to our enemies.

God's love for us is free, unmerited and forgiving. “This is how we know what love is, Jesus Christ laid down His life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters.” (1 John 3:16). Again in Romans 5:8 we read, “But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” In the life and death of Christ we see what God's love is and what man's love for God and for others should be.

Therefore, as Christians and citizens of heavenly kingdom, we must make it our aim to stir one another to love and good work. (Hebrews 10:24). We must concentrate on the example of love in Christ, in this way we will make our call and election sure (2 Peter 1:7 & 10) and bear a compelling witness in the world to the truth of the Christian faith and the kingdom of God which we represent.

Have a blessed week!
